My dear Alfred,

Margot tells me that you are just about to celebrate your 50th birthday, so I felt I must write & wish you many happy returns of the day, and send you my love & best wishes. I expect this will arrive long after the proper day, but I hope it may arrive some time.

I am hoping to go & see Nante & Margot at the end of this week. I had only just heard that they had moved to Marsham Court.

I have really retired from the Board now & am at the moment a lady of leisure - I was rather glad to have a little rest, as life is exhausting in these days. I spent most of January making visits - I had a very pleasant walk with Mary Dexter, & another with Bob & Olive who are now at Bournemouth - I am probably going to start part time work at the Board quite soon - They discovered when I had retired that let's say stuff kept coming in & there was no one to deal with it! I shall try & get some other part time work as well, as this is not a time for enjoying leisure. All my family are well at present - the nephews all scattered about - I was glad to get a good report of you & Evelyn from Margot, & send you both my very dear love. Good luck to you both Ever yours affec.
